What are the ICPPs?

ICPPs are the largest International Conferences in the field of philosophical practice. Since 1994, ICPPs have concentrated the most important practical and applied philosophers of the international sphere such as Lou Marinoff, Gerd Achenbach, Ran Lahav, Neri Polastri, Karin Murris, Óscar Brenifier, Ora Gruengard, Peter Raabe, Peter Harteloh, Anders Lindseth, Leon Of Hass, Lydia Amir and José Barrientos (among others), addressing the most diverse fields of application such as philosophical counseling, philosophy for children and the young, philosophical workshops applied in various areas, philosophical cafes, philosophy for organizations, etc. Philosophical practice responds to a fundamental concern: the need for philosophy applications and the need for philosophy on the part of society. Thus, since the 70's and 80's of last century, great exponents in this area have claimed that the work of philosophy has to do with approaching individuals, groups and organizations. This way, many methodologies, theoretical basis and materials have been constructed in order to emphasize that philosophy must be linked to an educational, interactive and applied task.
History of the ICPPs

In 1994 the first International Conference on Philosophical Practice was held in Vancouver, and since then the ICPP has been developing every year or two in different parts of the world. Countries such as Canada, Spain, Germany, Netherlands, USA, UK, Denmark, South Korea, Greece, Serbia, Switzerland, Italy, etc. have hosted these Congresses. This year is a source of great pride because we are facing the first International Conference on Philosophical Practice to be held in Latin America in 2018, specifically in Mexico.

We really appreciate if you help us to spread this call with your colleagues!

Special Call: In this ICPP we will compile a list of Universities and Institutions of Higher Level Studies that impart some program, subject, postgraduate program or project in relation to philosophical practices. This will be published for sharing with the international community. At the moment we have a list of almost 70 Universities! We hope that those who have not yet submitted information will support us with this valuable contribution for the development of our discipline. We attach here a format to complete if you work or know Universities that have this characteristic.

We look forward to meet you soon!
