

Submissions to Philosophical Practice

Publication Details: Published by the American Philosophical Practitioners Association. Three issues per annum. ISSN Online 1742-8181

Aims and Scope: Philosophical Practice is a scholarly, peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the growing field of philosophical practice. The journal covers substantive issues in the areas of client counseling, group facilitation, and organizational consulting. It provides a forum for discussing professional, ethical, legal, sociological, and political aspects of philosophical practice, as well as juxtapositions of philosophical practice with other professions. Articles may address theories or methodologies of philosophical practice; present or critique case-studies; assess developmental frameworks or research programs; and offer commentary on previous publications. The journal also has an active book review and correspondence section.

Instructions for Authors: Papers may be theoretical, empirical or review articles. They will usually be no longer than 6,000 words although, where merited, longer submissions will be considered. Shorter articles on research findings, methods and techniques (up to 2,000 words), or book reviews and commentaries (up to 1,000 words) are also invited. Letters to the Editor (up to 500 words), on any relevant topic, are invited as well. Manuscripts are welcomed from any country although the language of the journal is English. All contributions will be anonymously reviewed, either by members of the Editorial Boards or by panels of ad hoc Reviewers drawn from practitioners, researchers, academics or others who have made significant contributions to the field. Decisions regarding publication will be made by the Editors with advice from the Editorial Boards or Reviewers, with feedback provided to authors on decisions taken. Editors can be contacted by potential contributors wishing to discuss a proposal or seeking advice or guidance on preparation of a submission.

Address for Correspondence: Manuscripts should be submitted as email attachments in Microsoft Word, to lou.marinoff@appa.edu and cc'ed to johnson.cheung@appa.edu

Guidelines for Manuscripts: Manuscripts must be double-spaced on A4 or 8.5 x 11 inch pages, allowing 1 inch minimum margins. The word-count should be stated. The title should be brief and indicate the main topic of the article. A list of up to eight keywords should be supplied, as well as a summary abstract of up to 150 words. Authors' names should be given in full on a separate sheet. Authors should provide brief details (up to 50 words) of professional autobiography. Authors' address, telephone, fax and email details should be included. Where there are two or more authors, a single contact for correspondence and proofs should be indicated.

Guidelines for Book Reviews: The main theme of the book should be clearly presented but it is not the purpose of a review to summarize the book. Reviews should evaluate the book in relation to other significant work on the subject. Reviewers should assess the book the author has written rather than use the review as a vehicle for their own opinions, and should back up criticisms with reference to specific instances in the text wherever possible. Apart from minor editions, the Reviews Editor will not alter or cut without prior consultation with the reviewer. The invitation to review a book, however, does not constitute a guarantee that the manuscript will be published. To submit a book review, or a book to be reviewed, please contact leslie.miller@appa.edu

Referencing: References should follow the APA style, as follows.

Only works actually cited in the text should be included in the references. Indicate in the text by putting inside brackets the author's name and year of publication. References should be listed in alphabetical order at the end of the article. Publications from the same author in a single year should use a, b, c, etc.

Footnotes and Tables: Footnotes are not normally permitted but endnotes may be used if necessary. Tables should be Word objects, laid out clearly and supplied on separate pages, with an indication within the text of their approximate location. Vertical lines should be omitted, and horizontal lines limited to those indicating the top and bottom of the table, below column headings and above summed totals. Totals and percentages should be labelled clearly.

Copyright: Manuscripts are considered on the understanding that they are not being considered concurrently by another journal. On acceptance you will be asked to assign copyright in your article to the Journal. Consent for reproduction of your article in collections of your work appearing subsequent to publication will be given without charge, contingent on full citation of your article herein.

Electronic offprints: Authors will receive stand-alone PDFs of their articles, reviews or letters, which they may freely disseminate in accordance with the provisions of the copyright agreement. Authors will also receive a complete PDF of the Journal issue in which their contributions appear, which in accordance with the copyright agreement is not for dissemination without the explicit permission of APPA.

Philosophical Practice is published under the auspices of the American Philosophical Practitioners Association (APPA). Neither APPA nor its Editorial Boards hold themselves responsible for the views expressed by contributors.
